THE COURIER

EXTRAORDINARY.

TUESDAY, JULY 7TH, 1825.

We have the pleasure to announce the arrival of the H. C. Ships Inglis and Kellie Castle, having left England on the 19th February.

List of Passengers per Inglis.—Captain and Mrs. Maughan, Bombay Marine, Captain Lawrence, Dr. and Mrs. Giliand, Miss A. R. Hobson, Miss E. Wood, Miss E. C. Watts, Surgeon Dow, Messrs Donn and Lawrence, Assistant Surgeons, Messrs. Walker, Fawcett, and J. S. Smith, and W. Smith, Cadets.

Per Kellie Castle.—Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Warring, Mr. Giraleston, Mr. Robertson, Mr Jenkins, Messrs Fiddes, Bart, Parr, Cadets, and Mr. Doig Assistant Surgeon. Left England 19th February.

H. M. 2d or Queen's Royal Regiment have arrived on these Ships.

An addition of 7,000 men had been made to the Army, but no encrease in the number of Regiments.

Sir Charles Stewart was to proceed on a mission to Lisbon and Brazil.

Parliament met on the 3d February. The Ministry had announced their intention of suppressing the Catholic Association.

There had been long and violent debates on the 10th and 11th February on the subject of the Catholic Association. We cannot give the result, as on the 13th, the latest date to which we have received English papers, the debate was still adjourned.

H. M. 31st Regiment had sailed for Calcutta.

The Royal George and Amity, Free Traders, had both sailed for this Port; the former about the end of January, and the latter on the 6th Feb.

The H. C. S. Farquharson, for St. Helena and Bombay, was to leave England about 8 or 10 days after the Inglis.

The following ships are advertised in the English papers, for this port.—The Recovery, to sail positively on the 10th March, the Mulgrave Castle and Britannia in all March, the James Sibbald and Cambridge in April, and the Upton Castle on the 1st July.

We delayed the Extra from a wish to give the debate on the King speech, but as this is too long to be got up for today's post, we have delayed giving it till the publication of our regular paper.
